The University of Iowa-Iowa State University CAFO study group thanks Governor Tom Vilsack and Director Jeffrey Vonk for giving us the opportunity to bring scientific discourse to this issue of such great importance to Iowans. The Chairs would like to acknowledge the tremendous effort of the study group in completing this task. Co-chairs Gerald Miller, Gary Osweiler and Peter Thorne are specifically commended for their hard work and diligence. A huge debt of gratitude is owed to Dr. Carol Hodne who served as both a co-author and as the coordinator for the study group. Technical, design and editorial assistance was provided by Leslie Loveless, Kathryn Andrews, Patti O'Neill, Angela Rieck-Hinz, Kathey Testin, Susan Thompson, and Julia Venzke. We also wish to thank Bryan Bunton of the Department of Natural Resources for providing data on odor complaints in Iowa. Lastly, we thank our external peer review group for providing insightful comments in a very short time frame.
